Key highlights:

- Opportunity for a fun road trip in a new part of the country. We would travel approximately 14 hours by van/SUV. We will stop overnight in Pennsylvania and arrive in Whitinsville between 3 and 5 pm on June 25th
- The opportunity to do important service work in the community and build the Kingdom.
- Projects are structured around youth and their abilities and strengths.
- Opportunity to meet other Christian teens from around North America (each site hosts 80 students).
- A fun day away in the city of Boston with a duck boat tour.
- Time for connecting with leaders, building relationships, and growing faith.
- Our host site, Pleasant Street CRC in Whitinsville, is the home church to several folks who have personal relationships to Georgetown members.
- We are eager to add adult volunteers! Please let Eric know if you're interested in going.
